BAND STORY

"My name is Steve Gibson, I was born in Newcastle Upon Tyne, England and I am Twenty years old. I began playing guitar at the age of six and by the age of fifteen had achieved a distinction in Grade 7 Classical Guitar with Trinity Collage, London, England. Around that time I began writing music and was accepted into Newcatle Upon Tyne College for Music and Performing Arts I passed my first year with honors. During this time I formed my first band The Travellers and began recording a few of my songs, but I had to abandon both my studies and my band when I emigrated with my family three years ago. I have always been passionate about my style of lead guitar playing, which has been highly influenced by Mark Knopflor of Dire Straits, whom my father knew personally when they were younger. Since moving I have listened more to Country Music and have been swayed more to a Country style of song writing, it is very popular and the songs have a lot of meaning and a story behind them, as do mine, I want people to hear my story My music is my life, not a minute passes when I am not thinking of new ideas for songs, shows and performances, I eat, sleep and breathe it."
